Capacity: 290 people

The image is a composite of two photographs. The left photograph shows the interior of a restaurant with a modern, rustic aesthetic. It features wooden tables and chairs, a long wooden counter, and a kitchen area with stainless steel equipment and green subway tiles. The ceiling is dark with several circular pendant lights. The right photograph is a close-up of three dishes on a wooden table. The top-left dish is a round, golden-brown fried item, possibly a bread or dumpling, topped with a white sauce and a piece of meat. The top-right dish is a bowl of yellow, saucy pasta or dumplings with small, round toppings. The bottom dish is a large, oval-shaped plate with a row of grilled squid rings, garnished with fresh herbs and a small piece of meat, served alongside a large, cooked leaf of green vegetable. A small white house icon is in the top right corner of the right image.

EAT

FI'LIA

Fi'lia Paris, honest Italian food with a hint of Mediterranean influence. Fi'lia's is all about sharing and transmission from the grand-mother (La Nonna) to the mother (La Mamma) onto the daughter (La Figlia). Traditional recipes, created around fresh ingredients from the heart are perpetuated, shaped and reinvented from generation to generation.

Capacity: 90 people

DRINK

FI'LIA

Cocktails are refreshingly uncomplicated—less about complex recipes & technique, and more about how perfect a Spritz is on a July or a September afternoon.
